Bristol Cycling Campaign AGM

This year's Bristol Cycling Campaign AGM is at The Studio, Bristol Beer Factory, 291 North St, Bristol BS3 1JP

Tuesday 2nd June. Doors open from 7pm, AGM starts 7.15pm

Zoe Banks Gross will be joining as our guest speaker. Zoe has recently become Co-Chair of the Bristol One City Transport board, is one of our charity trustees and also a member of the Bristol Walking Alliance committee.

Joe Wood will be sharing his experience of establishing Bristol's inaugural bike bus at May Park School, as well as updating on plans for this year's Kidical Mass ride. Sticking with the theme of kids,

Alice Ferguson, founder of Playing Out will present an overview of a recent paper titled "Streets for Play, Streets for Freedom" which calls for a radical, child-centred approach to decision-making around streets and transport planning.

Rob Harrold, lead for the Space4Cycling project will provide a summary of the year's consultation responses and work to try to make cycling safer & easier in Bristol & beyond.
